United Kingdom	Yes, always	the application form provides for such disclosures to be made	X		ECGD interprets "national court" to mean the national court of the relevant ECA, so for ECGD this would be a court in the United Kingdom. In all ECGD application forms the applicant is required to answer "Yes" or "No" to the following question: "Have you, or has anyone acting on your behalf in connection with the Supply Contract, within the period of five years ending on the date of this Application, been convicted in a court in the United Kingdom, or been subject to any administrative sanction or any other administrative measure in the United Kingdom, for contravening any laws against bribery of foreign public officials?" Unless and until applicants are publicly advised by ECGD to the contrary there are only three administrative sanctions or measures of which ECGD would currently expect to be advised under this heading. These are: 1. A debarment from tendering in public procurement competitions (Regulation 23 of the Public Contracts Regulation, 2006). 2. A disqualification from being a director of a company in the UK on the grounds of misconduct (sections 1 and 8 of the Directors Disqualification Act, 1986). 3. Civil forfeiture of assets obtained through unlawful conduct (Part 5 of the Proceeds of Crime Act, 2002).
