Q1: TITLE OF CASE STORY: Indonesia's South-South and Triangular Cooperation: Experience and on moving Forward

Q2: CASE STORY ABSTRACT

Indonesia is a front-runner of global South-South Cooperation initiatives. Since 1981, Indonesia has played a significant role and has launched many initiatives for South-South Cooperation Programs. Since then, the government organized numerous training programs on SMEs, investment, agriculture and food security, microfinance, women empowerment, renewable energy, governance, disaster management and poverty alleviation. Indonesia also provides scholarships, dispatching experts to other developing countries and grant various technological tools for the purpose of assisting those countries in needs.

In this undertaking, Indonesia has received positive responses from both donor and beneficiary countries which are reflected from growing requests for SSTC.

For the period of 2000-2014, Indonesia carried out more than 404 programs and activities with the total funding of at least US $ 56 million. From those 404 knowledge sharing program, Indonesia had trained at least 4472 participants from Asia, Pacific, Africa, Middle East and South American region.

Q3: LONG DESCRIPTION OF THE CASE STORY

Indonesia's South-South and Triangular Cooperation (SSTC) Programs are a manifestation of Indonesia's commitment and contributions to global development since it serves as important means for our foreign policy to promote nation building and forge a world-order based on freedom, perpetual peace and social justice. Furthermore, South-South Cooperation have valuable role in promoting greater understanding, solidarity, and mutual benefit.

SSTC is based on the principles of voluntary partnership, national ownership, mutual respect, non-conditionality, solidarity and knowledge sharing. SSTC also promotes home-grown solutions and helps developing countries accumulate their experiences and build their capacities.

Indonesia has launched plenty of initiatives for SSTC Programs, funded by national budget and supported by our development partners. Various capacity building programs in form of training, workshop and other relevant activities have been organized in numerous sectors, among others Agriculture, Disaster Risk Management, Food Security, Maternal and Child Health, Infrastructure, Micro Finance and Women Empowerment. Indonesia also provides scholarship, dispatches experts and grants various technological tools for the purpose of assisting friendly countries in needs.

Indonesia's SSTC activities are coordinated by the National Coordination Team of Indonesian SSTC (NCT), which was established in 2010. NCT is an inter-ministerial coordination, mainly consists of four core ministries namely Ministry of National Development and Planning, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of State Secretariat and Ministry of Finance. Related ministries and relevant institutions also included in the NCT.

For the period of 2000-2014, Indonesia carried out more than 404 programs and activities with the total funding of at least US $ 56 million. From those 404 knowledge sharing program, Indonesia had trained at least 4472 participants from Asia, Pacific, Africa, Middle East and South American region.

With reference to the Grand Design of Indonesian SSTC from 2011 to 2025, the period of 2015 initiates the second phase of Indonesian SSTC policy implementation. This phase focused on strengthening and
