ODA for Indonesia as an MIC

ODA remains having important roles in national development

Roles of ODA need to be redefined.
The main constraint is not merely the lack of financing but rather the utilization

ODA as a means/vehicle of improvement of national capacity and resources

Jakarta Commitment:

Signed 12 Januari 2009 , adopted by 26 Development Partners

Aid for Development Effectiveness Secretariat (A4DES) established as pool of resources, facilitation and coordination of JakComm action plan;

Acknowledged the importance of gender issues in development process and aid effectiveness;

Expand the dialog with other development actors (CSO & private sector)

Supported by 3 main pillars:

Country Ownership
over Development

More Effective and Inclusive Partnership for Development

Delivering and Accounting for Development

Indonesia and the IRG

- Indonesia is actively involved in the Monitoring and Evaluation of the Paris Declaration:
 - ❖ Monitoring the Implementation of Paris Declaration (Phase 2) in 2008. The result helps GOI to map out the Jakarta Commitment and its action plan;
 - ❖ The on-going and upcoming monitoring the Implementation of Paris Declaration (Phase 3) as well as implementation of Paris Declaration Country Level Evaluation Phase 2;
 - ❖ Preparation for the HLF IV in Busan, South Korea, 2011.
- Indonesia is keen to learn from international community on experiences and progress from the implementation of Paris Declaration
