Welcome remarks

- Fabio Segura, Co-CEO Jacobs Foundation, Co-Chair netFWD Education Working Group

15:35 – 15:50

Setting the scene: Education Giving in the midst of COVID-19: preliminary insights

This session will provide an overview on OECD data on global philanthropic and Official Development Assistance (ODA) flows for education, and explore emerging priorities in developing countries amid the Covid-19 emergency.

- Bathylle Missika, Head of Networks, Partnerships and Gender Division, OECD Development Centre
- Laura Abadia, Policy Analyst, OECD Development Centre

15:50-16:20

Panel discussion: How is Covid-19 shifting donors' strategic planning in education?

Education funders elaborated their strategies before the Covid-19 era. The good news is that many of their priorities are still relevant. However, strategies were based on assumptions that changed substantially because of the epidemic. This panel will discuss the new (post-Covid) assumptions education funders are considering to guide their future investments in education.

Moderator: Andrew Cunningham, Global Lead for Education, Aga Khan Foundation Aga Khan Foundation, co-Chair netFWD Education Working Group

- Tracey Burns, Senior Analyst, OECD's Centre for Educational Research and Innovation
- Camila Pereira, Director of Education, Lemann Foundation
- Piero Bonadeo, Assistant Vice President, International External & Regulatory Affairs, AT&T
- Marcelo Cabrol, Manager, Social Sector at Inter-American Development Bank
