

From Commitments to Action: Integrity for Good Governance in Latin America and the Caribbean

Lima Commitment
April 2018

At the VIII Summit of the Americas, governments committed to fighting corruption and strengthening governance.

To support the implementation of the Lima Commitment, the OECD designed the OECD-LAC Action Plan on Integrity and Anti-Corruption

- ✓ Design and implement national integrity and anti-corruption strategies
- ✓ Enhance trust in public institutions
- ✓ Increase accountability vis-à-vis citizens
- ✓ Establish a culture of integrity across the public, private and societal spheres

ACTION PLAN

103 POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS IN 10 AREAS WHICH AIM TO Mitigate

policy
capture

Improve
public administration

Lay
the foundations for an ethical & responsive
civil service

Reinforce
internal & external control & audit

Build
trust with effective
law enforcement

Prevent
corruption in public
procurement

Develop
capacities at subnational
levels

Promote
good corporate governance &
integrity in SOEs

Promote
shared responsibility with the private sector

Develop
comprehensive integrity
frameworks