

Amanda Burgauer
Scottish Rural Action

Amanda lives in the Southern Uplands of Scotland and is passionate about rural affairs and the need for vibrant, sustainable rural communities. She is a member of the Lanarkshire LEADER Local Action Group, Treasurer/Director at Wiston Lodge (a charity that supports children and young people) and sits on the South of Scotland Economic Partnership board. Amanda has been involved in the Scottish Rural Parliament since the first workshop in 2012 and has been Chair of Scottish Rural Action since February 2016.