

Edina Ocsko
ENRD Contact Point

Edina Ocsko is a policy expert at the Contact Point of the European Network for Rural Development (ENRD CP). Edina has over 10 years of work experience related to rural networking and rural development policy. In the past five years she has been working as a coordinator of the Networking Group at the ENRD Contact Point, and later as a coordinator of thematic activities on Smart and Competitive Rural Businesses and Social Inclusion in rural areas.

Previously, she worked as a consultant and researcher (based in London, Budapest and Brussels) on numerous EU-funded projects, including EU-funded programme evaluations, research and technical assistance projects (related to LEADER/ Community-led Local Development; Interreg, ESF pilot actions and other EU programmes).