

Kukka Kukkonen

Specialist

ELY Centre

Kukka Kukkonen works as a specialist at the Centre for Economic Development, Transport and the Environment (ELY Centre) of North Ostrobothnia. ELY Centres are responsible for the regional implementation and development tasks of the central government. Her area of expertise is rural development with special focus on funding co-operative projects promoting regional competitiveness. She has worked over fifteen years with the implementation of the European Agricultural Fund for Rural Development in Finland.