

Laura Enbuska-Mäki

Municipality Specialist, Regional Council of Lapland

Finland

Mrs Laura Enbuska-Mäki (MEd, a graduate student of M.Soc) works as Municipality Specialist and a deputy of Strategy Manager at the Regional Council of Lapland. As her assignment at the Regional Council of Lapland she supervises the interests of municipalities and participates on regional strategic developing and planning work. Previously Laura has been a Development Manager in the municipality of Pello (in rural Finnish Lapland) and has been in charge of economic and employment policy and immigration issues. She has taken part of municipality's administrative and organizational work and developed processes of public service with different methods and projects.

Laura's main interest is to analyse how to build future's region and municipality and how to create positive impact on rural community's vitality. Professionally Laura favours to challenge herself and co-workers "to think outside the box." She favours to approach phenomena with active solution-oriented way and appreciates multidisciplinary co-operation.
