

Phil Barnes

Fogolsland Coop

Phil has over 40 years of diverse Food Processing experience in a senior executive role working in the Seafood Industry for 30 years, the Dairy Industry, the Meat Processing Industry and the Produce Industry. He also has Pharmaceutical experience and as worked as an advisory consultant in various food sectors. Phil joined the Fogo Island Co-op in 2007 as General Manager overseeing the overall business model and is looking toward a strategic vision of diversification as well as immigration and innovation as the key solutions to the daunting challenges of demographics in rural settings.