

Sarah Severn

Deputy Director Rural Policy

DEFRA

Sarah Severn is a Deputy Director heading up the Rural Policy team in the Department for Environment, Food, and Rural Affairs in the UK. She and her team are responsible for rural proofing Government policy, and also focus on rural productivity, broadband and mobile infrastructure, and rural communities. She has previously worked in the Home Office and was awarded a CBE for services to public protection in 2013.