

Population (in million)

Megatrends affecting water management

- Global shocks
- Economic development
- Climate change
- Demographic changes
- Urbanisation
- Food insecurity

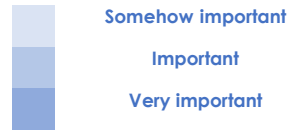

Water risks

- Water pollution
- Ageing or missing infrastructure
- Floods
- Competition over water allocation
- Water borne diseases
- Droughts
- Access to water and sanitation

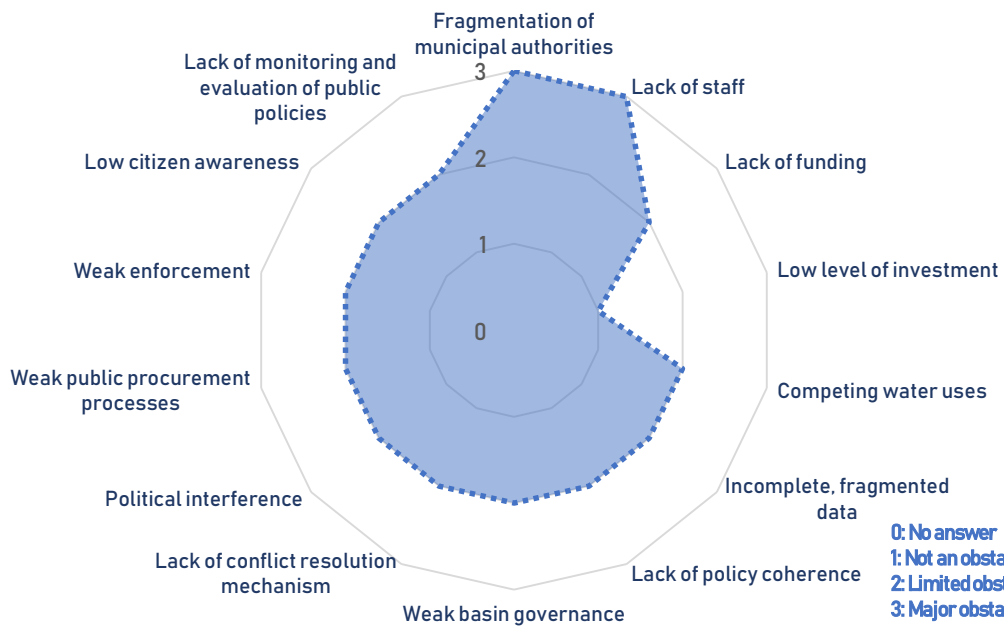

Policy areas influencing urban water management

- Transportation
- Solid waste management
- Agriculture
- Land use and spatial planning
- Building codes and housing
- Public health
- Manufacturing industry
- Tourism
- Manufacturing industry

Obstacles to water governance

- 0: No answer
- 1: Not an obstacle
- 2: Limited obstacles
- 3: Major obstacles

National and local policy frameworks

National level

- Dedicated national water and sanitation policy indicating goals duties and resources
- Recognition of the UN right to Water and Sanitation

Local level

- Existence of a dedicated water and sanitation policy
- Minimum amount of water guaranteed to the population
- Social measures on water and/or sanitation for vulnerable categories

Transparency and accountability mechanisms

- Clear procurement process

Forward-looking strategies

