

Short Biography of

Vincent FOUCHIER

Dr. Vincent FOUCHIER has a PhD in Urban Planning at Paris VIII University.

He's currently deputy General Director in charge of the Paris' Region Master Plan, at the Ile-de-France Regional Institute of Urban Planning Studies (IAU-IdF: 210 persons). He also serves as Chair of the Working Party on Urban Affairs at the OECD ; he's the French representative to the OECD, about Urban matters.

He was a member of the scientific committee of the Grand Paris international consultation. He was before Policy Advisor, in charge of studies and prospective research at the French National Planning Agency (part of the Prime Minister's Office) and he was formally in charge of urban affairs: urban contracts between State-Regions-Cities, new national policy dedicated to metropolitan areas, and the creation of 15 new local planning agencies. He was before in charge of urban planning and studies for the French National Agency for Large Urban Projects and New Towns (Ministry of Housing, Urban Planning, Construction and Transports). He also worked as town planner and researcher for Evry New Town Corporation. He had an experience at the General Consulate of France in Hong Kong, as Cultural Attaché in charge of Town Planning, Architecture and Environment. He has number of associative activities. He is a lecturer on territorial development and metropolitan strategies at Paris La Sorbonne University and at the Political Sciences School (Paris) and he has extensively published.

Vincent Fouchier

Institut d'aménagement et d'urbanisme de la région Ile-de-France (IAU-îdF)

15, rue Falguière 75740 Paris cedex 15

tel: 33 (0) 1 77 49 78 48

vincent.fouchier@iau-idf.fr

www.iau-idf.fr