BIOGRAPHY

Fluent in English, Dutch and Portuguese and with experience living in Holland, Mozambique, Swaziland, Namibia, and the UK, Adrianus Vugs is well-travelled with an active interest in sub-Saharan African political, economic and development issues.

In his current role as General Manager, Research, Policy & Statistics for the Namibian Financial Institutions Supervisory Authority (NAMFISA), Vugs leads the legislative and regulatory reform of the non-bank financial sector.

Prior to this role, Adrianus served as General Manager Provident Institutions at NAMFISA, with supervisory oversight of Pension Funds, Insurance, Medical Aid Funds and Friendly Societies. He has also worked as a pricing actuary for Swiss Re Life and Health in the Netherlands and as an actuarial consultant for Alexander Forbes Financial Services in Namibia.

Adrianus holds a Bachelors degree in Actuarial Science from the London School of Economics and an MBA from the University of Cape Town. He is also a fellow of the Institute of Actuaries in the UK.
