

PROGRAMME

Launch of the OECD/INFE 2020 International Survey of Adult Financial Literacy

25 June 2020 | 11.30 a.m. CEST

■ About the OECD

The OECD is a forum in which governments compare and exchange policy experiences, identify good practices in light of emerging challenges, and promote decisions and recommendations to produce better policies for better lives. The OECD's mission is to promote policies that improve the economic and social well-being of people around the world.

■ About the OECD International Network on Financial Education (INFE)

Created in 2008, the OECD/INFE promotes and facilitates international co-operation between policy makers and other stakeholders on financial education issues worldwide. More than 280 public institutions from 130 countries have joined the OECD/INFE. www.oecd.org/financial/education/

■ Contact

Jannah HUXLEY | SecretariatINFE@oecd.org

Project Assistant, OECD International Network on Financial Education

Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs

■ Participate

The event will be held via videoconference using Zoom. Participation is by invitation only. Please contact the OECD/INFE Secretariat to request the link to register.

Online launch of the OECD/INFE 2020 International Survey of Adult Financial Literacy

11:30 Welcome and opening remarks

The OECD Secretariat will welcome participants with brief welcome remarks discussing financial literacy and financial well-being in times of economic turbulence.

- Flore-Anne Messy, Executive Secretary of the OECD/INFE and Head of the Insurance, Private Pensions and Financial Markets Division, OECD

11:35 Presentation of the OECD/INFE 2020 International Survey of Adult Financial Literacy

The OECD Secretariat will present the results of the OECD/INFE 2020 International Survey of Adult Financial Literacy. Following the presentation of the preliminary results during the OECD/INFE Technical Committee meeting in May 2020, this session will recall the financial literacy scores and focus on insights from elements of financial inclusion, well-being and the experiences of different groups.

- Kiril Kossev, Economist, Insurance, Private Pensions and Financial Markets Division, OECD

The presentation will be followed by a questions and answers session.

12:20 Member presentations

Senior representatives of OECD/INFE member countries who participated in the comparative survey will discuss how they have used data to enlighten financial education policies; how useful it has been to have waves of surveys and comparative data and how useful it has been to have comparative international results.

- Koba Gvenetadze, Governor, National Bank of Georgia
- Magda Bianco, Head, Directorate General for Consumer Protection and Financial Education, Bank of Italy
- Arlina Ariff, Director, LINK and Regional Offices, Bank Negara Malaysia

The presentations will be followed by a questions and answers session.

13:00 Concluding remarks

- Flore-Anne Messy

www.oecd.org/finance/financial-education

