

Markus FREIBURG founded the Financing Agency for Social Entrepreneurship (FASE) in Germany, in co-operation with Ashoka. FASE helps leading social enterprises across Europe raise hybrid growth capital to scale their social impact. Today, Markus is recognised as a leader in the field of social finance. He was also selected for the 40 under 40 European Young Leaders Class 2017. Markus studied Economics in Witten/Herdecke and Cambridge, and he earned a Phd from WHU Koblenz with a thesis on investments by institutional investors in private equity funds. He also works as a management consultant in McKinsey & Company.