

Filipe SANTOS is an Economist and holds a PhD in Management from Stanford University. He is a Chaired Professor of Social Entrepreneurship at Católica-Lisbon and Visiting Professor at INSEAD. He was a Professor of Entrepreneurship at INSEAD from 2003 to 2014, when he left to launch the government initiative Portugal Social Innovation. He is a co-founder of IES - Social Business School in 2009 and the Laboratory for Social Investment in 2013. Filipe is an award-winning teacher, a board member of EVPA, a mentor to entrepreneurs, and an expert in entrepreneurship and social innovation. He is co-author of the book "The Social Entrepreneur's Guide to Changing the World". His research has received more than 5000 citations in Google Scholar.