

Julia STAUDT is building Strategic Foresight capacity at the OECD. She is helping the organisation and its various partners identify emerging issues and prepare for a range of alternative future scenarios. Julia has experience in developing and facilitating foresight interventions as well as innovation workshops across a range of policy fields. Julia has lived in 8 countries and worked with many more. Prior to joining the OECD, Julia worked in the development sector for UNDP in Colombia and the German Development bank. She holds a Master's Degree in International Management from HEC Paris and another in Public Policy from Freie Universität Berlin.