Objective

The OECD is organising a Kick-Off event on Monday 20 March 2023 as part of the inception phase of the "Ma'an Together for an accountable and transparent public administration in Jordan" project, funded by the EU. This project is part of a wider EU Program (''Support to improving integrity and accountability in Jordanian public administration at central and local levels'') which aims to support efforts by the Government of Jordan to build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels.

The purpose of the event will be to present the project within the context of Jordan's ongoing reforms, and to discuss the main findings of the inception phase, which will help shape the projects activities.

The event will have simultaneous interpretation Arabic-English-Arabic.
