

Ms. Anne Duncan

Global Vice President, International Women's Forum and Managing Director, Lumiu

Anne is an international business strategist, entrepreneur and board director with multi-sector experience across management, marketing, operations and academia. She is Global Vice President of the International Women's Forum which for more than 30 years has been working around the globe to advance women's leadership and champion equality.

Anne was formerly NatWest Fellow at London Business School, and currently serves as Managing Director of LUMIU, strategy and business development consultancy helping leaders, teams and organisations to shape, launch and grow opportunities with agility, customer focus, and scale.

For more than 20 years Anne has served in board leadership roles. She is currently Governor and ExComm member of the American Hospital of Paris; ExComm for France & Chair Digital & Technology Leadership for the Institute of Directors; Non-Executive Director of the Clinique de Cancerologie de la Porte de Saint Cloud.