

Mr. Demetrios G. Papademetriou

Distinguished Transatlantic Fellow and President Emeritus, Migration Policy Institute

Demetrios G. Papademetriou is Distinguished Transatlantic Fellow and President Emeritus of the Migration Policy Institute (MPI) in Washington and of MPI Europe in Brussels.

He founded both institutions, respectively in 2001 and 2011. Dr. Papademetriou also convenes the Transatlantic Council on Migration, now in its 11th year of biannual meetings, and convened the Regional (North American) Migration Study Group from 2011 to 2014. He has published more than 280 books, monographs, articles, opinion pieces and research reports on migration and related issues, and advises senior government officials, foundations, and civil society organizations in dozens of countries.

He is also Co-Founder and Chair Emeritus of Metropolis, has been Executive Editor of the International Migration review, and has chaired such groups as the World Economic Forum's Migration Council, the OECD's Migration Group, and the Open Society Foundations' International Migration Initiative.
