

Ileana Grandelis

Rural Employment Officer – Policy and capacity development support

Ileana Grandelis is a policy expert, specialized in rural development. She holds a MSc degree in Rural development, institutions and management of natural resources from the Institut Agronomique Méditerranéen (IAMM-CIHEAM), a MA degree in International and European Relations, and a BSc degree in Political Science and International Economy.

Ileana joined FAO at the beginning of 2007, as UN/DESA Fellow in the FAO Subregional Office for North Africa in Tunisia. She moved to FAO Headquarters in 2009, joining the Decent Rural Employment Team. She is currently coordinating the FMM-funded programme “Integrated Country approach for promoting decent rural youth employment in Guatemala, Senegal, and Uganda”. Since January 2017, she is based in Guatemala.

Before joining FAO, Ileana conducted research activities in Guatemala, publishing in 2007 with CIHEAM her MSc thesis on the “Assessment of social capital in the rural communities of Guatemala”.