Information on Tax Identification Numbers

Section I – TIN Description

The Secretariat of the Federal Revenue of Brazil (RFB) assigns a unique number to each person enrolled in its registries. The TIN structure depends on the type of taxpayer (individual or legal person).

1. For individuals:

The “Cadastro de Pessoas Físicas – CPF” is a number attributed to both national and resident taxpayers (Administrative Act – IN RFB nº 1.042/10).

2. For legal persons:

The “Cadastro Nacional da Pessoa Jurídica – CNPJ” is an identification number issued to entities (including companies, partnerships and foundations) of relevance for the tax administration. (Administrative Act – IN RFB nº 1.470/14).

In general, non-residents either natural or legal persons who own certain assets in Brazil, such as real estate, vehicles, participation in a company or partnership, bank accounts or investments, are required to register at the CPF or CNPJ.

The registration process is available both online and directly at one of the partner institutions.

Question 1 – Does your jurisdiction automatically issue TINs to all residents for tax purposes?

Individuals Yes Entities Yes

Section II – TIN Structure

The TIN structure varies depending on the type of taxpayer.

For individuals, it consists of 11 digits (the 2 last numbers are the result of an arithmetic operation on the 9 previous ones) and for legal persons, it consists of 14 digits formatted as XX.XXX.XXX/XXXX-XX (the first eight digits identify the company, the four digits after the slash identify the branch or subsidiary and the last 2 are the result of an arithmetic operation on the previous ones).
